

Urban Growers Leadership Program

The Urban Growers Leadership Program is a bilingual educational series consisting of workshops, farm tours and a skill-share program developed for leading urban farmers and gardeners in Providence County, RI. Program topics and schedules are tailored to the interests and availability of you, the participant.

Program Length: March 2022— September 2022

By Participating You Will Earn:

- A Certificate of Training
- A Training Guide consisting of notes and training materials from the program
- Project Funding Opportunity for a maximum of $599.00 for each program participant

Who Can Apply?

- Any individual that is growing or gardening in a small/urban space in Providence County, RI. Past participants have included community garden leaders, small business owners, employees of farming and gardening organizations, and farmers who grow primarily for their own families.
- Any individual who has the excitement and commitment to learn, get involved in the community, and advance their growing skills.

Applications Due: Friday, February 4, 2022

Send filled out application
By Email to: Gennifer Keller, gkeller.nricd@gmail.com
OR complete online at: https:// www.nricd.org/

This Program is organized by the Northern Rhode Island Conservation District (NRICD) and leading urban farming and gardening partner organizations. This program is funded by the National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) Beginning Farmer and Rancher Development Program.

